1. Acceptance of Terms and Conditions. These terms shall govern all transactions between Metro-Tex Fabricators, Inc. ("Metro-Tex") and Seller. By acceptance of this purchase order, Seller agrees to be bound by and comply with all the terms and conditions herein. However, acknowledgment of receipt of this order, shipment of the goods ordered hereunder, or commencement of performance and delivery called for by this order shall constitute acceptance of this purchase order by Seller. This order does not constitute an acceptance by Metro-Tex of any offer to sell, quotation, or proposal by Seller. Reference in this order to any such offer to sell, quotation, or proposal shall in no way constitute a modification of any of the terms and conditions of this order. This purchase order, together with any additional writing signed by Metro-Tex, represents a complete and exclusive statement of the agreement between the parties. This order may not be modified or supplemented by oral representations, Seller's price quote or order acknowledgment, a course of dealing, Seller's performance or delivery, or in any other way. Objection is made to any such attempted modification or supplementation of this order and shall not be binding upon Metro-Tex unless specifically accepted in writing by Metro-Tex. To the extent not otherwise provided herein, the terms of all agreements between Metro-Tex and Seller shall be those provided by the Uniform Commercial Code in effect in the State of Texas on the date hereof which would be provided if the parties were silent as to those terms.

2. Delivery. Time is of the essence for this purchase order, and Seller shall immediately notify Metro-Tex in writing of any delay or threatened delay in Seller's performance. If Seller fails to deliver goods or complete services to be furnished hereunder, Metro-Tex shall be entitled in addition to any other remedy available at law or equity, to assess such amounts as may be set forth on the face of this Purchase Order as liquidated damages for delay. The Seller agrees that such amounts are a reasonable pre-estimate of the damages which Metro-Tex may suffer as a result of such delay, and are assessed as liquidated damages and not as penalty. Unless otherwise stated on the face of this purchase order, delivery of goods ordered hereunder shall be made F.O.B. Metro-Tex's warehouse in Houston, Texas, and title will pass to Metro-Tex upon receipt of goods. Transportation charges are to be billed to the Seller by carrier and will be borne by Seller. Risk of loss in transit lies with the Seller. No charges for unauthorized transportation will be allowed. Any unauthorized shipment which results in excess transportation charges must be fully prepaid by Seller. Metro-Tex may cancel this Purchase Order in whole or in part without any liability if the delivery of goods is not complete by the required delivery date. Metro-Tex shall have the right to inspect and test the goods ordered hereunder at any time prior to delivery, and to inspect such goods within a reasonable time after delivery. The goods shall not be deemed accepted until after such inspection following delivery. The making of any inspection, or the failure of Metro-Tex to make any inspection, payment, or acceptance of the goods delivered shall in no way impair Metro-Tex's right to reject or revoke its acceptance of nonconforming goods or to seek any other remedies to which Metro-Tex may be entitled.

3. Title and Risk of Loss. Seller agrees to deliver to Metro-Tex, unencumbered title to the goods purchased pursuant to this Purchase Order, free and clear of all liens, claims, and encumbrances. Title and risk of loss to goods delivered hereunder shall pass to Metro-Tex upon receipt by Metro-Tex at its warehouse, unless otherwise agreed in writing.

4. Right of Rejection. If any goods and services ordered herein are found at any time to be defective, or otherwise not in conformity with any requirements of this order, including applicable drawings and specifications, Metro-Tex, in addition to such other rights, remedies, and choices as it may have by contract or law, may at its option and sole discretion (a) reject and return such goods at Seller's expense; (b) take such action as may be required to cure all defects and bring the goods into conformity with all requirements, in which event all costs and expenses incurred by Metro-Tex including material and handling charges shall be borne by Seller; and (c) require Seller to re-perform at its own expense, any defective portion of the services performed. Seller is required to replace nonconforming goods with goods that conform to this order.

5. Right of Suspension. Metro-Tex may, at any time, by written notice to Seller, suspend performance of work required to complete this order. Notice of suspension shall specify the date of suspension and the estimated duration of the suspension. Upon receiving any such notice of suspension, Seller shall promptly suspend further performance of the work to the extent specified. During the period of suspension, Seller shall properly care for and protect all work in progress and any materials, supplies, or equipment Seller has on hand for performance of the work. Upon the request of Metro-Tex, Seller shall promptly deliver to Metro-Tex copies of any outstanding purchase orders and subcontracts of Seller for materials, equipment, and service for the work, and shall take action relative to such purchase orders and subcontracts as may be directed by Metro-Tex. Metro-Tex may at any time withdraw the suspension of performance of the work as to all or part of the suspended work by written notice to Seller specifying the effective date and scope of withdrawal, and Seller shall resume diligent performance of the work upon the effective date of withdrawal of suspension.

6. Right of Termination. Metro-Tex may terminate all or any part of this order at any time by written notice to Seller. Upon termination (other than due to Seller's insolvency or fault including failure to comply with this order), Metro-Tex and Seller shall negotiate reasonable termination costs which will be identified by Seller within thirty (30) days of termination notice.

7. Notice of Default. Time is of the essence for this purchase order. Except in instances of delay which are due to causes beyond the reasonable control and without the fault or negligence of Seller and all of its suppliers, Metro-Tex may by written notice of default to Seller, terminate the whole or any part of this order upon the occurrence of any of the following: (a) Seller fails to perform within the time specified herein; (b) Seller fails to make progress so as to endanger performance of this purchase order in accordance with its terms; or (c) Seller fails to comply with any of the terms and conditions of this purchase order. Termination of the order shall become effective if Seller does not cure such failure within a period of ten (10) days after receipt of notice of default from Metro-Tex. Upon termination, Metro-Tex may procure goods, supplies, or services similar to those terminated, by such terms as it shall deem appropriate. Seller shall continue performance of this order to the extent not terminated and shall be liable to Metro-Tex for any excess costs for such similar goods, supplies, or services. As an alternate remedy and in lieu of termination for default, Metro-Tex, at its sole discretion, may elect to extend the delivery schedule and/or waive other deficiencies in Seller's performance in which case an equitable reduction in the purchase order price shall be negotiated. In the event Seller for any reason anticipates difficulty in complying with the required delivery date, or meeting any other requirements of this order, Seller shall promptly notify Metro-Tex in writing. If seller does not comply with Metro-Tex's delivery schedule, Seller must provide delivery by the fastest available method and absorb charges resulting from such premium transportation. The rights and remedies of Metro-Tex provided in this section shall not be exclusive and are in addition to any other rights and remedies provided by law or under this purchase order.

8. Payment and Taxes. All prices specified herein are firm and shall not be subject to change. Seller's total price shall be deemed to include all federal, state, and local sales, use, excise, value added, privilege, payroll, or occupational taxes and any other taxes, fees, or duties applicable to the goods furnished to Metro-Tex. No extra charges of any kind will be allowed unless specifically agreed to in writing by Metro-Tex. Seller agrees that all warranties pursuant to this purchase order shall extend to, and be for the benefit of, Metro-Tex and Metro-Tex's customers. Any attempt by Seller to limit, disclaim, or restrict any warranties or remedies of Metro-Tex, by acknowledgment or otherwise, shall be null, void, and ineffective without the written consent of Metro-Tex.

10. Compliance. Seller warrants and represents that goods delivered pursuant to this Agreement, and the sale or use thereof, shall not infringe any patent, trade secret, copyright or trademark, and that Seller will at its own expense defend , indemnify, and hold harmless Metro-Tex and Metro-Tex's customers from and against all claims, demands, actions, and liability based on alleged or actual infringement thereof. Metro-Tex, at its option, may require Seller to deliver non-infringing goods, modify Seller's goods so as to become non-infringing, procure for Metro-Tex the right to continue using Seller's infringing goods, or refund the purchase price thereof upon the return by Metro-Tex of the infringing goods. 13. Authorizations. Seller is solely responsible for the timely procurement of any necessary government authorizations, including, without limitation, export or import licenses and exchange permits. If Metro-Tex applies for any such authorization, it does so as a convenience for Seller and Metro-Tex shall have no responsibility for any errors therein or failure to pursue or obtain an authorization. Seller will comply with any applicable export control laws and regulations.

14. Seller's Insolvency. If, in the judgment of Metro-Tex, Seller ceases to conduct its operations in the normal course of business, including the failure to meet its obligations as they mature, or if any proceeding under bankruptcy or insolvency law is brought by or against Seller, or if a receiver for Seller is appointed or applied for, or an assignment for the benefit of creditors is made by the Seller, Metro-Tex may terminate this order without liability. 16. Changes to Order. This Purchase Order shall not be changed or otherwise modified except upon the prior written authorization of a duly authorized representative of Metro-Tex. Metro-Tex shall have the right to make any changes to the goods and services ordered under this purchase order, including changes to the method of shipment or packing, place and time of delivery, or the quality of goods ordered, and Seller agrees to perform this purchase order in accordance therewith. If in Seller's opinion such change will cause an increase or decrease in the cost of, or time required for performance and delivery hereunder, Seller shall notify Metro-Tex promptly. If additional cost or time is required for performance or delivery hereunder, Seller shall not proceed without written authorization from Metro-Tex, directing Seller to proceed. If any such changes cause an increase or decrease in the cost of, or the time required for the performance of any work under this contract, whether changed or not changed, an equitable adjustment shall be made in the Contract Price, delivery schedule, or both, and the purchase order shall be modified in writing accordingly. Any claim by the Seller for adjustment under this clause must be asserted within thirty (30) days from the date of receipt by the Seller of the notification of change. Any change to this order shall be authorized only by a duly executed purchase order amendment hereto.

19. Waiver. No claim or right arising out of a breach of this contract can be discharged in whole or in part by a waiver or renunciation of the claim or right unless the waiver or renunciation is supported by consideration and is in writing signed by the aggrieved party. The failure of Metro-Tex to enforce at any time or for any period of time any of the provisions hereof shall not be construed to be a waiver of such provisions or of the right of Metro-Tex to thereafter enforce each and every such provision.
